Gay Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre debuts in Long Beach, CA

"All Aboard for Murder," a unique Gay Comedy Murder Mystery Dinner show is now playing at 'The Reef on the Water' Fridays and Saturdays from October 2 and through November 28, 2009. And this is not your standard run-of-the-mill murder mystery. This is a special interactive evening of live theatre, comedy improvisation, audience participation, and a wonderful dining experience with a gay twist.

Founded by Paul Vander Roest and Dan Bumgarner, Act Out Mystery Theatre is a repertory company designed to bring the fun and mystery of Dinner Theatre to Long Beach and Southern California. "All Aboard For Murder," is the first in a series of planned productions. "We love the idea of comedy murder mysteries and dinner theatre and have found the perfect setting at 'The Reef on The Water' a restaurant located next to the historic Queen Mary here in Long Beach," said Vander Roest, co-owner, playwright, and performer.

"The show features four seasoned Los Angeles performers (Bruce L. Hart, Steven Beitler, Lara Starr Rigores and Vander Roest himself) who play multiple comedic characters," explained Bumgarner, "and there are sixteen additional audience participation parts. Audience members will get the opportunity to be part of the show and maybe even be the murderer!
